Memories of Elaine & Dulon Magers' 60 Years Together
October 30, 2003

In 1940 Elaine & Dulon first did chat;
At Unity's ballgame is where they sat.

In a buggy they had 2 dates.
She decided then they would be mates.

Dulon was drafted by the Army, you see!
But the Navy's where he chose to be.

In 1941 to service he went;
For 2 months no letters were sent.

Finally for 2 years they wrote each a daily letter.
He proposed; she accepted, no way better!

He came home in October 1943
For a 7 day leave and his wife to be.

They married on October 30, 1943,
And she met the Magers' clan that night, you see!

From Mary Ruth's skirt tail, Woody peeked out.
While pictures were made, Milford in the window looked about!

At Mama & Papa's house, pallets of quilts Mama Magers made;
Under the dining room table the newlyweds stayed.

With a houseful of kin,
Everybody did grin!

Mama & Papa Magers had 3 sons & 3 sons-in-law in the war, you see.
Always a houseful of people it would be.

At Vallos, CA, Dulon met his brother-in-law, Earl, in 1944
And bought Elaine a dress, "Sunflowers don't tell!" and many more.

In 1945 while in service Dulon sent money to sister, Bertie Mae:
A fur collar coat for a Christmas present he did pay!

Their 25th Wedding Anniversary was in 1968;
At Centerville Baptist Church they celebrated each a happy mate.

Many projects did Dulon & Elaine make;
Our favorite was Dulon's jokes & Elaine's carmel cake.

Dulon made Lynn's wedding candleholders in 1974
And built all kinds of wooden objects and lots more!

They were awarded Volunteer of the Year
At Lee Manor Nursing Home to their hearts they held dear.

On Sundays & Wednesdays at Centerville & Mantachie Churches they did fill Because in their hearts they knew it was God's Will!

They celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary in 1993;
At Mantachie First Baptist Church it was to be!

Elaine's Sunday School Class had her 82nd birthday in Feb. 2003;
Even Dulon kept the party a surprise, wow wee!

In Oct. Harmony Baptist Association commended them as they strive Being spiritual volunteers every Friday at Lee Manor Home since 1985.

They have many family, nephews, and nieces;
They fill our hearts with pride; we love them to pieces!

Dulon clowns and makes us all laugh with his jokes
While Elaine welcomes all with her cooking, tea, and cokes.

We celebrate at Mantachie First Baptist Church their 60th Anniversary year,
And we can see on October 25, 2003 why they hold it so dear!

Uncle Dulon & Aunt Elaine, We Love You Both Dearly and Adore!!!
HAPPY "60" ANNIVERSARY YEARS and Many More!!!

Robert, I am at work, so send me another BB message reminding me that I need to get Anita's address for you when I log on Saturday morning from my home office. I sent the address to Donald Logan last night if you want to ask him for it before I get back to you. I also got some of that Cooper information from Mary Matthews and I will get you her ID when I get home. She is descended from Jesse Maxwell, my Jeremiah's brother and father of Martha M. Maxwell who married Fleet Cooper in 1832 in Lawrence County.

Pat, no I did not have that information about Jeremiah being on the Marion County tax roll in 1812. That sheds a whole new light on things. Is Marion County one of your Counties? My aunt, Florence Matulich and all of her family live in Columbia, MS. Her daughter Lynn married Joe McNeese also from there. If Jeremiah was in Marion County in 1812, he was old enough to be married (prior to his marriage to>> Mildred Harvey in Janaury 1821) because he was born in July 1789. Do you have any record of him being married to someone other than Mildred?

PS...Today at the Historical Society, I hit the Jackpot! I found a Genealogy Manuscript on microfilm called "The Mathews Family of Virginia and Allied Families" by Anne D. Montgomery, 1968. In it I found my Wiley Mathews who turns out to be the son of Joel Early Mathews and Ann Glover (Ann> of Marengo County, AL) Other Children are: 1. Joel, Jr. 2. Charles, 3. Eli, 4. Wiley, 5. Medora.

Joel Early was son of Charles Lewis Mathews (b. VA and died 1840 Dallas County, AL) and Lucy Early. Charles Lewis was the son of George Mathews, b. VA , who later became Governor of Georgia. I am elated!!! Please add this info to the manuscript that I sent you.

Pat,

for your information and your library to be able to help others if they have queries about the Maxwells, Mathews, Pembertons, Balls, Blakes, and even Joel Harvey, who also was prominent in Georgia and Copiah/Lawrence Counties, Miss. His son, Joel Harvey, born around 1797 became a Baptist minister and lived out his days in Attala County, MS.

I have never found much more information on my ancestor Jeremiah Maxwell. If you ever come across info on him, let me know. Also, am still looking for the father of Wiley Mathews--mother was Roda Carrell (I think that was her surname), born 1790 in one of the Carolinas.

Thanks

HISTORY OF OUR FAMILY
BALLS, BLAKES, MATHEWS, MAXWELLS AND PEMBERTONS

by Clare Leinert Sallee
June, 1992

INTRODUCTION

After many months of research at the University of Missouri Library, the Missouri State Historical Society, Prodigy (computer network) and various inquiries to various states, counties and libraries, I have put together the following booklet on Our Family.This will include (but not limited to) the Balls, Blakes, Mathews, Maxwells, and Pembertons. I realize, of course, that there are other family lines contained here, but I will leave that development to whomever in YOUR line wishes to pursue it. While I tried to be as meticulous and accurate as possible, please remember that I am human and humans make mistakes. So if you find one, please feel free to correct it and I would dearly appreciate being informed of the mistake so that I can correct it in my computer.

So enjoy reading the history of "Our Family".

BALL

Thomas Ball was the first "Ball" that I found reference to as being a settler in the Middlesex area of Virginia. He was one of the people listed as being in attendance at a vestry meeting of the "Middle Church" on October 31, 1684. I feel fairly sure he was probably the father or grandfather or Edward Ball (below).

"Edward Ball (often misspelled in old records as Bawl because they could spell only by the sound they heard), father of eleven children, was named Sexton of the Middle Church (one of three Churches in early 1700 Middlesex County) in 1714 and served until his death in 1726, when the sextonship was awarded to his widow, Keziah, who held it until she in turn died ten years later. Sextonships apparently were positions given to "indigent" heads of families in order that these people have means to take care of their families. Such duties often encompassed grounds maintenance, grave digging, cleaning the church interior, etc. The "Church" at that time still took care of the poor as opposed to the Government doing it today.

In 1736, two sextonships were open, one at the Middle Church (Keziah's position) and the other at the Lower Church. Widow Elizabeth Long was awarded the vacancy at the Middle Church; the Lower Church position went to Keziah's son-in-law Joseph Smith. And when Smith died in 1740, Keziah's daughter Elizabeth was named to replace him. Elizabeth had one grown son, Edward, but he was not involved in the church because of other commitments."[1] Elizabeth Ball married George Blake and Keziah Blake was the first "mother" in our Maxwell line by marrying Thomas Maxwell.

Issue of Edward and Keziah Ball were:

Johannah - b. April 14, 1699; married John Blake
Arthur - b. March 24, 1697
Edward - b. March 1, 1701
Catherine - b. January 25, 1696
Elizabeth - b. May 1, 1704
Mary - b. March, 1708
Phoebe - b. November, 1711
Ann - b. March 1710
Daniell - b. January 5, 1716
Benjamin - b. January 13, 1719

BLAKE

Keziah Blake was born July 12, 1719, daughter of John and Johannah (Ball) Blake, granddaughter of George and Elizabeth Blake; great-granddaughter of John and Jone Blake; also granddaughter of Edward and Keziah Ball, both of whom were leaders in Christ Church in Middlesex County, Virginia; all early settlers of Middlesex County, Virginia. tA the time of this writing, I have not been able to find out much about the Blakes other than names and dates.

MAXWELL

"Origin of the Name of the Family - Maxwell.....When in possession or occupation of lands generally took the surname in this way and then arose a curious process when such names were conferred afresh upon other lands. I cannot give you a better instance of this than is afforded by my own surname a tolerably common one in Scotland. In the 11th Century Maccus the son of Unwin became possessed of certain lands on the Tweed. Here there was an excellent salmon-pool, just below Kelson bridge, which became known as "Maccus'wiel" the Anglo Saxon for a pool, now "Maxwheel." This name got attached to the surrounding lands, hence members of the family became known as Aymer, John or Herbert de Maccuswell, for apparently they thought more highly of their salmon-pool than of the house near St. Boswells, Maxton--"Maccus tien." As time went on, the preposition was dropped and the family became simply Maxwell. But they prospered and obtained other lands, and so we find the name, which was originally a place name, one more at Maxwellton, Maxwellfield, and Maxwellheugh."[2]

In August 1927, one of the authors of "Thomas Maxwell and his Descendants", Annie Lou Maxwell of Georgia, went to Scotland to visit in the home of Sir Herbert Eustice Maxwell. She described it as a "rich" experience. Sir Herbert was a charming host. His guests at the time included Lord Darling, Judge of the King's Bench of the High Courts of Justice of London; Lady Darling, his daughter, Sir Andrew Agnew of Scotland; Sir Herbert's daughter Mrs. Graham of Scotland and her three children, a son and two daughters.

Sir Herbert Eustice Maxwell was the 7th Baron of the House of Monreith. The ancestral home was a beautiful English stone baronial hall in Whigtowshire, neat Whauphill in Scotland. Sir Herbert was born in Edinburgh on January 8, 1845; studied at Eton and Christ Church, Oxford. In 1880 he married Miss Mary Campbell of Baquhan. He was Lord of the Treasury from 1886 to 1892, Chairman of the Royal Commission on Tuberculosis in 1897-98, and Chairman of the National Library of Scotland from 1928 to 1935. He was a lecturer on Archaeology and Scottish History in Edinburgh and Glasgow and at the age of 86 in August 1927, he had just returned from a lecture trip. He was an outstanding gardener, had collected plants from all over the world. His garden, in the center of the estate, was open to the public every Thursday afternoon. Sir Herbert died October 30, 1937, aged 92.[3]

THE FIRST KNOWN THOMAS MAXWELL OF OUR LINE

"Our ancestor, Thomas Maxwell was the son of immigrant, Joel Maxwell, son of Eustice Maxwell of Maxwellton, Scotland. Eustice Maxwell was a General in the Army of Inquisition where there was a constant war between Scottish noblemen of Catholic faith and the Presbyterian clergy. Scottish immigrants came to America in search of religious freedom. Those who came to Virginia entered the state by way of Pennsylvania or Maryland. Some historians say that Thomas Maxwell was one of three brothers who came to America. Two went to Virginia and one went to New York."[4]

"Joel Maxwell came to America in the early part of the 18th century; some say 1706, others say during the Jacobite Rising, which began in Scotland in 1715 where religious and political unrest was rampant. Many went from Scotland to Ireland then to America."[5] Hence, the saying "We're Scotch-Irish" that I've heard all my life.

Thomas Maxwell, was born in Virginia ca. 1723 , the son of immigrant, Joel Maxwell, and married Keziah Blake in Middlesex County, Virginia, May 2, 1738. This marriage is recorded in the "Christ Church Parish Register" of that county, page 170. No birth place or firm date of birth for Thomas Maxwell has been found as of the date of this writing. And for the many many hours of research I have done, I have never been able to find any reference to Joel Maxwell other than in the book "Thomas Maxwell and his Descendants". I found William Maxwell who came to America in 1716 but never did find Joel.

The children of Thomas and Keziah (Blake) Maxwell, as recorded in Christ Church Parish Register, Middlesex County, Virginia are as follows:

Page 127. Johannah Maxwell, born Aug. 29, 1738, baptized Sept. 10, 1738.
Page 151. John Maxwell, born June 8, 1740, baptized July 6, 1740.
Page 154. Thomas Maxwell, born Sept. 8, 1742, baptized October 1742.

Bartholomew Yates was minister of Christ Church at that time.

For those of us who are of the Baptist denomination, you will be glad to hear that we are following in our ancestor's footsteps, as attested by the following information.

Christ Church Parish Register has the record of Thomas Maxwell's birth. Christ Church is an Episcopal Church and at that time was the Church of England. However, in his own Bible, Thomas wrote "Thomas Maxwell born Sept. 8, 1742, born again 1768" - a phrase used at that time to mean he accepted the Baptist faith.

PEMBERTON

On June 15, 1761, Thomas married Mary Pemberton, born May 1, 1744 of King William County, Virginia. Middlesex and King William Counties were two of the wealthiest counties of that time. I haven't found out anything else about Mary but am continuing to search the many volumes in our library on early Virginians.

Bishop Meade attributed the Pemberton name to the Huguenot Immigration of 1700. The name was spelled Penbreton in the early days, which suggests a Breton ancestry. "The King William Pembertons were noted for their education and wealth. They owned fine properties and were substantial and highly regarded citizens. The family is now widely scattered through the South and West."[6]

In searching the ship's passenger lists, between 1683-1699, I found a total of 12 John Pembertons on ships bound for Pennsylvania and Virginia from Liverpool, England. Also mentioned were Thomas, William Phenias and Ralph Pemberton.

I will list the names, dates and ships below should any reader be so inspired to continue to search related data.

I can only speculate on the implications of the above information. One theory is that, as stated above, the King William County Pembertons were considered very wealthy. They could have owned a shipping fleet. Since King William County was known for it's tobacco, they could have been shipping the tobacco back to England and John could have either been a ship's captain, or could have been accompanying his tobacco to Liverpool and then booking passage to come back to Virginia. Interesting, isn't it.

The following information can be used for those wanting to get into the D.A.R. and the D.A.C. In "Virginia Colonial Militia 1651-1776" edited by William Armstrong Crozier, 1954, Thomas Maxwell served 10 days in June 1774 as a Scout in the Lord Dunmore's War. We are not sure if this was Thomas Maxwell, the minister, or his father, as no ages are given. It could be either one of them, as Thomas would have been 32 and his father would probably have been in his 50's. I suspect that it was the minister Thomas Maxwell.

I have a photocopy of a pay sheet dated Thursday Nov. 22, 1781 showing that $?? was paid to a Christopher Hawley (sic) for "attending boarding and draping the wounds of Thomas Maxwell, who was wounded at the Battle of Aleamaine in North Carolina as per audit".

Georgia LIST OF REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS AND THEIR WIDOWS, Page 186 shows:

John Maxwell and Thomas Maxwell, Sr.

Thomas Maxwell was a clerk of the Rapidan Church in Orange County, Virginia - a Baptist Church which was constituted in 1769, from 1790 to 1792 when he and his family migrated to Elbert County, Georgia. While the family was in Orange/Culpepper County, Virginia, our ancestor, Jeremiah, was born. Jeremiah was only 3 years old when the family went to Georgia.

The pioneer spirit seemed to have led this family to Georgia where they received "head rights" in the ceded government lands. The Roster of Revolutionary Soldiers of Georgia, published by D.A.R. says, "Ceded lands of Georgia." In the year 1774 Governor Wright opened a Land Court in Georgia, where the Broad River joins the Savannah. A stockade was built for protection from the Indians.

On June 11, 1774, he issued a proclamation stating that the lands would be surveyed and parcelled out in tracts of 100 to 1,000 acres. To the head of family was to be sold 100 acres; for each child 50 acres; and 50 acres for the wife." In 1792, the government gave bounty grants of land 287-1/4 acres and more to officers, to Revolutionary Soldiers to induce them to settle in Georgia." (Page 11.)

So, Thomas Maxwell and his family of eleven children must have left Orange/Culpepper County, Virginia for Elbert County, Georgia between April 3, and May 31, 1792.

In 1793, Thomas and his close friend, Rev. Dozier Thornton, organized Falling Creek Baptist Church in Elbert County, Georgia. Holly Springs Baptist Church, Elbert County, Georgia was organized as an arm of Dove's Creek Baptist Church, Elbert County, Georgia, on May 9, 1795. John Doss was the first pastor who filled out the first year. Then Thomas Maxwell served that church for thirty years--1796-1826--a few years before he died in 1837.

Following is a quote from the Elbert County, Georgia history, with some errors on dates. Otherwise, the information is correct.

"The History of Elbert County Georgia, 1790-1935" by John H. McIntosh 1940, page 52.

"In 1788, Dozier Thornton established Dove's Creek Baptist Church, four miles west of Elberton, and in the same year Thomas Maxwell was the moving spirit in the raising of Falling Creek Baptist Church which is still flourishing three miles south of Elberton.

Thomas Maxwell, while a resident of Virginia, was a number of times imprisoned for preaching the doctrines of the Baptist faith during the Episcopal reign, but he was dauntless in his determination. On one occasion while in prison, after the manner of St. Paul, he converted the keeper of his jail together with his entire family. Maxwell not only fought the army of the devil with fiery zeal, but played a conspicuous part in the American Revolution. It is a family tradition that he rubbed away a portion of his prominent nose by preaching to the crowds outside through the bars of his cell. Reverend Thomas Maxwell was born September 8, 1742 and died December 12, 1837."

THOMAS MAXWELL, born Sept. 7, 1742 in Middlesex County, Virginia; died Dec. 12, 1837 at the home of his daughter Elizabeth McMullan.

MARY PEMBERTON MAXWELL, born June 25, 1742, King William County, Virginia, died Dec. 18, 1827 at her home in Elbert County, Georgia.

Thomas and Mary Maxwell are buried in the Maxwell Cemetery, 315 Centerville District, Elbert County, Georgia, where the present day descendants have marked their graves with a double granite tombstone. (By error, the name Pemberton was spelled Pendleton.)

X. JEREMIAH MAXWELL, born July 14, 1789, in Orange County, Virginia married Mildred Harvey in Lawrence County, Mississippi on January 22, 1821. Joel Harvey, Sr. was bondsman together with Jeremiah in the sum of $200 to marry Mildred. I have a certified copy of their marriage license.

XI. Elizabeth Maxwell, born Sept. 25, 1791, in Orange County, Virginia, died Jan. 29, 1862, married William McMullan, September 3, 1812 Elbert County, Georgia.

(These names and dates are from Thomas Maxwell's Bible in the possession of Mrs. Lou Cordell (Jane Ham Cordell) a great-granddaughter of Thomas and Mary (Pemberton) Maxwell, who lives(d) near Liberty Church, Elbert County, Georgia in the late 1950's.)

Thomas Maxwell and John Maxwell were tax payers in a list recorded in Culpeper County, Virginia in 1783-1787. Rapidan Baptist Church is on the border of Culpeper County, but is located in Orange County, Virginia, the place of departure for Thomas Maxwell to go to Elbert County, Georgia.

All the Maxwells and their wives went to Elbert County, Georgia. John must have also fought in the Revolutionary War, because I found mention of his receiving two land draws in the Land Lottery in 1827, Major David Dobb's Battalion, Capt. Horton's District (From Land Court Records of 1821-1832 Elbert County, Georgia). I have not researched John's service since he is not our line. None of the other sons were old enough to have fought in the American Revolution.

Thomas Maxwell, Sr.	2 draws
Simeon Maxwell	2 draws

I was very distraught when I found a copy of the will of Thomas Maxwell, Sr., and decided that he must have been a very "hard" man. You can make your own conclusions, keeping in mind that Thomas, Jr., Jesse and Jeremiah are the sons known for sure to have migrated to Mississippi. I have not found anything out about Elijah.

THOMAS MAXWELL, SR. -- Will 1838

Georgia,
Elbert County.

I, Thomas Maxwell, Sr., considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound mind and memory blessed be God for same, do make and publish this last Will and Testament in manner and form following: That my just debts, as shall be by me owing at my death together with my funeral expenses, and all charges touching the proving of or otherwise concerning this my will, shall in the first place out of my personal estate and effects be fully paid and satisfied. After payment thereof and subject thereunto then my will is that all the balance of my estate be equally, divided among my children (to wit); John Maxwell, Keziah Henry, William Maxwell, Joel Maxwell, Sara Christian, Elizabeth McMullan and James Maxwell. And my will is that my son Thomas Maxwell, and my son Jesse Maxwell, and my son Elijah Maxwell, and my son Jeremiah Maxwell receive only two dollars each out of my estate for their part and as this is my last will and testament I hereby appoint my son John Maxwell, Joel Maxwell and William McMullan executors of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made, in witness thereof I have here unto set my hand and seal, the twenty-seventh day of December, eighteen hundred and thirty three. Signed,

Signed and sealed in presence of us as witnesses there unto
Wm. M . Almond,

off of copy I have)

DESCENDANTS OF JEREMIAH MAXWELL AND MILDRED HARVEY

JEREMIAH "JERRY" MAXWELL

It is from Jeremiah that our line of Maxwells stems. "Jerry" was 3 years old when his family made the trip from Virginia to their new home in Elbert County, Georgia.

Jeremiah Maxwell was born in Orange County, Virginia on July 19, 1789. I believe the family had moved to the Orange County area as early as 1760 because the Baptist Movement in this country was started in the 1760's in the Orange/Culpeper County area. As stated earlier, his father, Thomas Maxwell, was a minister of the Baptist faith, having been "born again" in 1768.

Jeremiah's older brothers, Thomas and Jesse, must have decided that there were too many Maxwells to live together in the Elbert County, Georgia area. Or maybe they were just not as "religious" as their minister father and wanted to "get away". Whatever the reason, we know for sure that they took off for the untamed areas of the new Mississippi Territory.

On April 24, 1802 the United States government agreed to pay Georgia $1,250,000 to relinquish claims to certain disputed territory, partly in the new Mississippi Territory. On March 27, 1804, the territory north of Mississippi Territory and south of Tennessee, e.g, the land ceded by Georgia to the United States was annexed to the Mississippi Territory.

In 1805 by the treaty with the United States, the Cherokee, Creek and Choctaw Nations permitted roads to be opened through their districts.

Thomas' and Jesse's names first show up in Mississippi on the 1820 Census in Lawrence County, on page 73 and 74.

In 1816 the Mississippi Territory gained new lands, ceded by Chickasaw and Choctaw Nations. On March 1, 1817 Congress passed an act enabling the Mississippi Territory to prepare for statehood. On Dec. 10, 1817, Act of Congress admitted Mississippi as a State to Union. By 1820 the population of Mississippi was 75,448.

On October 18, 1820, The Treaty of Doak's Stand was made between the United States and the Choctaw Nation with an exchange of Territory. These events could have been the reason that Jesse and Thomas decided to move to the Mississippi Territory.

On the 1830 Mississippi Census, Jesse and Thomas Maxwell again show up on the Lawrence County Census. Jesse is 50 years old and Thomas is 62. The 1830 population of Mississippi had grown to 136,621. "Jesse came to Lawrence County first, along with Henry, Thomas Maxwell, Jr.'s oldest son in 1812. Jesse was about 20 years old and newly married to Priscilla Keys. They all settled on rich acreage on Fair River, which was and still is a lovely stream that empties into the Pearl River. The Keys family soon followed from Georgia and obtained land in the same area. Both families were progressive, stable people who have continued to hold the respect of the area. Their descendants still own property near Fair River. Jesse Maxwell had the title of Major, although no one seems to know how and where he obtained that honorary title."

"Thomas Maxwell, III, Henry's father moved to Mississippi Territory later. He shows up in Lawrence County in 1815."

"Jeremiah Maxwell, son of Reverend Thomas Maxwell, came much later. While in Lawrence County, he married Mildred Harvey. Jeremiah moved on to Attala County where he eventually acquired large land holdings."[7]

Occupations of the Maxwells in Mississippi vary. "While the Reverend Thomas Maxwell of Virginia and Georgia was a minister, they did not make much money. He actually made his living farming the vast lands he acquired as a bounty from the Revolutionary War. He and the rest of his children and grandchildren, etc,. were industrious, ambitious, highly knowledgeable, as well as being good and honorable people."

Jesse, Henry, Thomas, Jeremiah and the rest followed their Rev. Maxwell's footsteps engaging in farming, built a lumber and grist mill on the Fair River, engaged in trading and with the virgin forests all around them, dealt in lumbering etc. They were known as thrifty, successful and ethical people.

None of the immediate sons were ministers. They were, however, very religious. In 1815 when the Fair River Baptist Church was formed, Jesse Maxwell and his wife, Thomas Maxwell and his wife were charter members. The family was involved in the associational affairs of the church, served as clerks, deacons, etc. Later in 1838, a G. C. Maxwell was pastor of the Fair River Baptist Church and in 1849, T. R. Maxwell as pastor. These two were without a doubt descendants.[8]

I do not know for sure, but speculate that Jeremiah was certainly old enough and not too old to have fought in the War of 1812. In December 1814 the naval battle of Pass Christian was fought near St. Louis Bay. On January 8, 1815 Mississippi troops took valiant part in the Battle of New Orleans. Maybe that's what he was doing during the time between when his brothers took off for "parts unknown" and the time he shows up in Mississippi with his brothers. Further research should tell us for sure.

[8]Statement in a letter from Ms. Anita W. Clinton, Research Chairman, Lawrence County Historical Society to Clare L. Sallee dated May 4, 1992.

Copiah County became a county in 1823 in part from Lawrence County. Since I have a copy of the marriage license of Jeremiah to Mildred Harvey in Lawrence County in January of 1821, I feel sure that he joined his brothers in Lawrence County, Mississippi in 1820. Mildred was the son of Joel Harvey, Sr. of Lawrence County. I believe that Joel Harvey migrated from Georgia with the older Maxwell brothers since the information we have on Mildred's birth was somewhere in Georgia between 1794-1804. I have no documentation to prove those dates, however.

On the 1830 Census, we see Jeremiah in Copiah County so we feel he was able to obtain land there to settle his growing family on. The Census shows 4 males under 10, 1 male 20-40 (must have been an extended family member living with them or a son by an earlier marriage that I have not found out about yet) 1 male 40-60 (Jeremiah), 1 female under 10 and 2 females 10-20.

I believe this census information is wrong since Mildred shows up on a deed in 1831 where Jeremiah and Mildred were selling their land in Copiah County to a Hiram J. Randall. I do not believe she was dead by 1830. But since they did not marry until 1821, you can see why Mildred Harvey did not live long. Bearing that many children in such a short time was very hard when you were the wife of a pioneer.

I have a copy of the deed recorded in "C" Copiah County on May 14, 1831 between Jeremiah Maxwell and Mildred (Harvey) Maxwell (parties of the first part) and Hiram J. Randall (party of the second part), conveying

> "the West half of the north east quarter of Section thirty five in township ten north of the thirty first degree of Latitude of Range ten east in district of Choctaw and State of Mississippi containing seventy-nine acres and fifty-six hundredths of an acre;"
> for $225.00 (Two hundred twenty-five dollars) to Mr. Randall.

(That comes out to about $2.82 an acre--Wow, would they be shocked at raw land prices today!)

Since Jeremiah shows up on the 1840 Mississippi Census in Attala County (Kosciusko) (p. 13), I am assuming that they were selling their property and heading to the land of the Choctaw Cession of 1830.....Attala County for "free" land. I do know that Joel Harvey, Jr., a brother to Mildred, also moved to Attala County. He was listed on one of the census records as being a Baptist Minister. At age 70 he had remarried a woman 45 years old.

In 1832 under the Treaty of Pontotoc Creek, the Chickasaw Nation ceded its lands east of the Mississippi to the United States and agreed to move from the state.

I believe Mildred died between 1831 and 1840, after arriving in Attala County and Jeremiah may have remarried. There is a record of his paying a tax in Attala County in 1835 (36).

The 1840 population of Mississippi was 375,651.

The record shows:

1835 Sept. 1936 (This could have been for 1835) 1 poll
1836 Feb. 1837 1 poll, 1 slave
1839 Nothing for Jeremiah
1840 Jeremiah 2 slaves. $2.50
1841 Nothing for Jeremiah
1843 Jeremiah 2 slaves.
(Nothing shown for Jeremiah after 1843)

Lida McIlwain wrote that he died in Attala County in August of 1843. I cannot prove that, however.

Children of Jeremiah and Mildred were:

I. Jeremiah Harvey Maxwell (this one I'm not sure about)
II. Isaac Winston Maxwell b. Feb. 9, 1824; d. July 29, 1880 (our Civil War Ancestor)
III. Augustus E. Maxwell; m. Clarissa ___(?)
IV. Thomas J. Maxwell (this one I'm not sure belonged to Jeremiah)

ISAAC WINSTON MAXWELL

Isaac married Minerva Jane Sanders, (b. in Alabama on April 30, 1825, d. April 22, 1880). Date of marriage was October 30, 1845 in Attala County, Mississippi by E. M. Well, Esq. Minerva was daughter of Reuben Sanders and Mary "Mollie" Logan Sanders. I have the Isaac & Minerva Maxwell Family Bible in my possession as of the date of this writing. Isaac was sometimes shown with "magistrate" after his name, and often called Judge.

all records lost.

The 1850 Population of Mississippi was 606,526.

On the 1860 Attala County, Mississippi Census for Kosciusko, Mississippi the following information appears:

Isaac W. Maxwell, age 36, occupation Wagoning; value of real estate owned $600, value of personal property, $250; born in Miss.

Minerva J. (Sanders) Maxwell, age 28, born Alabama.

Kosciusko clings to the sides of a series of ridges, its narrow paved streets ascending tortuously to the courthouse square on the crest of the highest hill. Viewed from the grassy square, the town is a mixture of the old and new; dilapidated frame buildings stand shoulder to shoulder with new brick ones, rambling Victorian houses, with magnolia littered yards. The town was settled about Red Bud Springs, now dry, which it is said appeared after the earthquake of 1811, although the Indians asserted they were formed when the great chief Tecumseh stamped his foot in Detroit.

When Andrew Jackson marched back from the defense of New Orleans, he followed the Natchez Trace, and, because of an abundance of good spring water, pitched camp in what is now Kosciusko's principal business district.

By 1959, the village had developed such cultural appreciation as to organize a stock company, the stock of which was sold at $10 a share in order to found a library which, when opened, had 389 well-selected books.[9]

On January 21, 1861, Mississippi withdrew from the Union. In 1862 Mississippi invaded by the Union Army.

Isaac Winston Maxwell was our Confederate soldier ancestor. I have a letter from a J. H. Wallace, Dossville, Mississippi, written in 1908 (very browned and faded, tattered) to our great grandmother, Martha Florence Maxwell Mathews (note spelling on this letter was Mathews, not Matthews), telling Grandma Mathews about her father, Isaac. She was trying to get into the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and this letter from a neighbor of Isaac's during the Civil War is the proof she needed that Isaac did indeed serve the Confederacy and was honorably discharged.

"Your father was a member of Capt. Sam Young's Company, 30th Mississippi Regiment, Company G, which took an active part in all the campaigns in Kentucky, Tennessee, and Georgia. At the Battle of Murfreesboro, Tenn., Capt. Young's Company was detailed as skirmishers to bring on the battle, in which the company lost in "killed and wounded" about half of its men.

After the fight, Captain Young's Company, and that of Capt. W. V. Davis, having lost many men, were consolidated under Capt. Davis, Capt. Young being badly wounded and disabled from service. Soon after the Battle of Murfreesboro, your father (Isaac) being a fine teamster, was detailed for that service, in which he remained until the close of the war, where he was honorably discharged and returned to his home, rather broken down in health from the hardships he had endured during the service. As your family lived a close neighbor to us, the next morning after he returned home, I went to see him and he showed me how badly his feet were frost bitten, and he gave me a graphic account of the awful sufferings from both hunger and cold through which he and his comrades had passed.

(This part is torn, so I can't read the first line of this paragraph, but it picks up..) that the Confederacy had no truer, braver and loyal soldier than Judge Maxwell, your father.

Your old friend,

J. H. Wallace"

Lida Helen Mathews McIlwain had copies of pay slips & Muster Rolls for Isaac W. Maxwell during Confederate service. They show him to be a "wagoner" and "teamster". He enlisted on May 1, 1862 at Grenada, Mississippi for a period of 3 years in Capt. Young's regiment. The pay slips show him in Shelbyville, Tennessee in May & June 1863, Chickamauga, Tennessee in September 1863, Dalton, Georgia in April 1864.

According to Civil War accounts the 30th Mississippi Regiment was organized at Grenada in approximately June of 1862. This regiment went into Kentucky, as part of Confederate Army's General Braxton Bragg's invasion of Kentucky in the Fall of 1862. They were engaged in battle at Murfreesboro, Tennessee from December 21, 1862 to January 2, 1863, where they lost 209 men killed, wounded and missing. They were engaged in another battle, this time at Chickamauga from September 17, 1863 to September 20, 1863, where they lost another 149 men. The total loss of the brigade (Brig. General St. John R. Liddel's Brigade) was 61 killed, 531 wounded and 196 missing in action. So you can see that Isaac's regiment suffered a major loss in this battle.

They were engaged in a battle at Chattanooga, Tennessee November 23-27, 1863 under Major J. M. Johnson. By this time, they were so "shot-up", sick, and ill-clothed that they were consolidated with several other units that were in the same condition. They served in Cheatham's Division, led by Lt. General William J. Hardee and Brig. Gen E. C. Walthall's Brigade. The total brigade loss was 8 killed, 111 wounded and 853 missing in action. The disastrous battle at Missionary Ridge led to the dismissal of General Bragg. Our ancestor, Isaac Winston Maxwell, was in the right "flank", which stood firm against the enemy. It was the left "flank" that, according to General Bragg, panicked and left their position, allowing the "yankees" to overrun the Confederate's position and thus win the battle.

They fought in the Atlanta Campaign from May 1864 until September 1864, a long, hard four months, fighting in particular at Resaca, Georgia and at Ezra Church.

They participated in the disastrous Confederate invasion of Tennessee, including the battles of Franklin on November 30, 1864 and Nashville on December 15-16, 1864. They then retreated to North Alabama, then overland to North Carolina to try to block Sherman's advance northward. Defeated and weary, they surrendered in North Carolina on April 26, 1865 with only a small group of survivors present.

Our great great grandfather was very fortunate to have survived, as many of his fellow Mid-Mississippians did not! He came home wounded, feet frost bitten so that he could not farm anymore. He ended up being a "saloon keeper". With the "Carpetbaggers" taking advantage of the horrible situation in the south after the war, Isaac lost his property and had to live with his brother for a while. Isaac and Minerva both died in 1880 at age 55 and 56.

Martha Florence Maxwell Mathews was invited to join the Regina Harrison Lee Chapter, #634, Starkville, Mississippi on Aug. 11, 1908. Lida Helen Mathews joined the Stephen D. Lee Chapter, Columbus, Mississippi, of the U.D.C. on Dec. 17, 1957. I have both of Lida's certificates hanging on the wall in my study.
